

Anaconda in English

Dance in New York

Bianca Traum från Stockholm tar danslektioner i waacking och vogueing i New York på en dansskola. Vi besöker en dansklass och pratar med Bianca om dans som sport och konstform.

Innehållsfrågor

- Why did Bianca Traum choose to study dance in New York?
- What inspired Bianca to start dancing?
- What does Bianca think of the sentence "If you can make it here, you'll make it anywhere"?
- Why does Bianca think people are surprised when they hear that she's a dancer?
- How does Gregory describe Bianca's dancing skills?

Diskussionsfrågor

Would you want to study abroad? Why/why not?

What advantages and disadvantages can you think of when it comes to studying abroad? Compare them with what you think of studying in Sweden.

What do you think about dance as an artform? Explain your thoughts!

Do you think there is a "typical dancer"? If so, what do you think signifies a dancer?

Dialogövningar

A _____

B The artists that inspired me were Michael Jackson, Janet Jackson, Tina Turner and Prince.

A _____

B It's not like I decided at a certain point because I always thought I was a dancer.

A _____

B The shoes are just for going outside. When we dance, we are barefoot or wear socks.

A _____

B If you really want to, I think you can make it, but you really have to want it.

