

Anaconda in English

Jobs

Anaconda träffar tre personer som har hittat sitt drömjobb. Engelsmannen Hugh Sykes rapporterar från krigsområden och riskerar sitt liv i det dagliga arbetet som korrespondent för BBC. Irländska Maeve Higgins gillar när folk skrattar åt hennes ståupp-komik. Australiensaren Bruce Hopkins är en äkta badvakt på världsberömda Bondi Beach.

Innehållsfrågor

- What dangerous things might happen to Hugh Sykes an ordinary day at work as a correspondent in war zones?
- What different jobs did Maeve Higgins try before she became a Stand-up comedian?
- How many people usually visit the famous Bondi beach and how many rescues do the lifeguards have every summer?
- How come Bruce Hopkins became a lifeguard?
- When do the sharks appear near the beach?

Diskussionsfrågor

Hugh Sykes has a dangerous job working as a correspondent in war zones.

Why do you think some people actually take that risk every day at work? And, would YOU put your life in danger in order to have such a job? Explain why or why not.

Maeve Higgins started going to a mixed school but soon changed to an all girls' school.

What might be the advantages and disadvantages of going to an all girls' OR boys' school instead of a mixed? Make a list and compare with a classmate.

Being a lifeguard might seem like a glamorous and rewarding job, but it has its downside.

What difficult tasks or situations do you believe a lifeguard have to be able to handle?

Dialogövningar

A _____

B No, I have no idea what I want to do for a living.

A _____

B Yes, I used to be a waitress and I have also worked in a pet shop.

A _____

B No, I would never take a job in which I would put my life in danger.

A _____

B I guess I would prefer to have a solitary job, because I work better on my own.

