KORTFILMSKLUBBEN ENGELSKA

Almost

Read through the whole work sheet in pairs before watching the film.

Before watching the film: discuss in pairs:

1. What would you do if you were madly in love with someone who did not love you back, and your best friend started flirting with that someone?
2. Would you date someone who lived really far away? What is the furthest away you would live from someone if you two were to date?

After watching: discuss in groups of 3-4

1. Describe Emily, Alfie and Tom.
2. Are Alfie and Tom good friends or not? What makes you think the way you think?
3. When you watch a film, do you think the beginning or the end is more important? How come?
4. What did you think of the build-up at the beginning and the end of this film?
5. What do you think are the differences between being enamored or in love?
6. What do you think happens after we die? What makes you think so?

After watching: be creative!

1. Write a letter from Emily to Tom a month after she goes back to New York. Or, a letter from Tom to Alfie a month after Tom died.
2. Make a group poster in English about what group thinks happens after you die. Then, mingle and walk around in the classroom, watch the other posters and have some interesting discussions about this topic.
