

PRODUCENT: MADELEINE NILSSON/STEVE HANKEY
PROJEKTLEDARE: RALF PERSSON
SÄNDNINGSDATUM: 2018-12-08

NEWSREEL WORLD Saturday 8th of December 2018

Fake News

1. Pratik Sinha gives an example of how the spreading of false rumours can have very serious consequences. According to mr. Sinha, 30 deaths have occurred as a result of a rumour. What was the rumour?

2. It is reported that some people perceive information found on chat apps as the truth. What is the reason given for this?
 - a) They are analphabets
 - b) They are not used to the internet
 - c) They are too old
3. Some young Indians are interviewed about their attitudes to fake news. How would woman 1 feel if something she found on the internet was a lie?
 - a) Disappointed
 - b) Surprised
 - c) Relieved
4. What strategy for fact checking does the young man describe?

AI News Anchors

5. What advantages of a robot news anchor are implied in the presentation?

Teaching science

6. Which of these languages is the native tongue of the Nigerian children mentioned in the programme?
- a) Nigerian
 - b) English
 - c) Yoruba

Palm oil

7. In what products can you find palm oil, according to the presenter?

8. How does palm oil production cause deforestation?

9. How does this affect the orangutans?

10. What can we as consumers do to help combat deforestation, according to Greenpeace's Annisa Rahmawati?

- a) Stop buying products that contain palm oil
- b) Donate money to charities
- c) Only buy products that contain palm oil from certain producers

Square poo

11. Why is the research into wombats' excrements exciting manufacturers?

Discussion points

- How do you identify fake news? What are your strategies for deciding whether a source is reliable?
- AI robots – brilliant or terrifying? What are the pros and cons of letting AI robots into domains like news production and teaching? What worst case scenarios can you think of?
- How aware were you of the palm oil issue before you heard this programme? What products that you use contain palm oil? Which products could you replace by palm oil free products?