B. Grammar: verbs in past tense

Verbs = words that describe what you are doing.

For example: shop, play and talk.

In past tense (dåtid) they change. In English you often put the ending -ed to verbs in past tense.

Present tense (nutid)	Past tense (preteritum/dåtid)
They shop at the mall.	Yesterday they shopped at the mall.
Holly plays the guitar.	Last week she played the guitar at the Open Mic night.
Their parents talk to them about telling the truth.	A few hours ago, they talked to them about telling the truth.

C. Put a line under all the verbs in past tense, with the ending -ed, in the text.

Holly and her brother had to help Mr Dodge build his chicken coop. Robbie wanted to play in the football game instead. His teammates came to the farm and helped them build it so they would be finished quicker. Robbie ran away from his job, but Holly decided to stay. She talked to Mr Dodge and found out he wanted to be an architect. Together they fixed the chicken coop. At the end of the episode Holly apologized to Tyler.
