

EPISODE 1 | FAITH AND ANXIETY IN LA

Arbetsblad

Words

quirks - first and foremost – influential

Questions on the content of the episode

1. Why does Linda refer to a yoga studio when describing Kashi's outfit?
2. Why does Kashi think that LA is a great place to learn to respect different people in?
3. What does In 'n Out Burger serve their guests, apart from food and beverages?
4. What is the final order for the two of them?
5. What conclusion can be drawn about Linda's milkshake?
6. Why can religion be a huge and sensitive topic according to Kashi?

Discuss

Overall questions asked by Linda: Are we as secular as we think in Sweden? On your own, try to define secular - what does it mean? In pairs, discuss why it is a fair description to call Sweden one of the most secular countries in the world. To what extent can we see the traces of a more Christian society in our everyday life? Give as many examples as you can come up with.

Key

1. Because of his t-shirt with Sanskrit writing.
2. Because there are so many different cultures, religions, ethnic backgrounds represented.
3. Bible verses
4. Two cheeseburgers with onion, two animal fries, lemonade, and a Neapolitan shake.
5. It's delicious
6. Everyone is different even if they belong to the same religious group.