After Listening: 10 Minute Discussion

Have you ever thought of farming? In the first news story, we heard about a scheme in South Africa that helps women to get into farming. Have you ever considered working in farming? Why or why not? If you had to work in farming, what do you think your day-to-day life would look like? Discuss with your classmate what you think a normal schedule would look like for a farmer. What do you think are the positive sides of farming? Which parts of the job is easy or fun? What do you think are the negative sides of farming? If you are not interested in farming can you think of any other jobs you could imagine doing? Give examples and discuss.

After Listening: Writing

In the second news story, we heard about Ms Marvel. She is the world's first Muslim Pakistani-American superhero. Now it's your turn to design your own superhero. Think about the following points and if you have time, include a drawing of your superhero.

- Superpowers
- Looks
- Personality
- Costume
- Location
- Origin story (how did he/she become a superhero?)
- Job (most superheroes have regular jobs as well during the day!)
- Family or relationships
