The little sister that plays baseball.

The mum who is

The boy that Holly likes

The two best friends, that help Holly out of detention.

B. Compare your answers with a friend. Take turns asking each other questions about the characters:

For example:

- What is the name of Holly's little sister?
- Who helps Holly out of detention?
- What is the name of.....?
- Who.....?

C. Helping out at home - fill in the checklist and answer the questions

Holly's dad thinks that "everyone has to pitch in", which means helping out more at home by, for example "doing their own laundry".

What do you have to help out with at home? Tick the boxes in the list. Write your own suggestions on the empty lines.

<input type="checkbox"/>	Clean the house or your room
<input type="checkbox"/>	Make your bed
<input type="checkbox"/>	Help out with dinner
<input type="checkbox"/>	Do the dishes
<input type="checkbox"/>	Babysit your younger siblings
<input type="checkbox"/>	Take out the trash
<input type="checkbox"/>	Go to the shop
<input type="checkbox"/>	Help out in the garden
<input type="checkbox"/>	_____
<input type="checkbox"/>	_____

D. Do you think children should help out at home? Why? Why not?

My dream - picture and text

Holly's dream is to be a music performer and to change the world together with her best friends. Robbie's dream is to be a professional football player and Heather's dream is to play baseball. What is your dream? Draw a picture of your dream and write about it on the worksheet.

Picture of my dream:

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for a student to draw a picture of their dream and write about it.

Text about my dream:

My dream is _____

This is my dream because _____

To make my dream come true, I _____

Read your text and show your picture to a friend. Put them up somewhere so other people can be inspired by your dreams.

Dreams you have when you sleep - picture and text

Dreams can also be something you have when you sleep. They can be amazing but also really scary. Draw a picture of one of your dreams and then write about it.
