6. At the end of the episode, Holly and Piper came up with a solution to Piper's problem. What was it?

My identity hand

Piper thinks a lot about her identity, who she is and where she belongs. Where you come from, the place where you live, your family and friends and your thoughts and feelings are all part of your identity.

What is your identity? Follow the instructions below to make your identity hand.

Instructions:

1. Place your hand on a white piece of paper.
2. Take a pen and draw the shape of your hand
3. In the centre of your hand, draw your family
4. In your little finger, draw something you dream about in the future
5. In your ring finger, draw a place you would like to visit
6. In your middle finger, draw what you like to do with your friends in your spare time
7. In your index finger, draw your favourite school subject
8. In your thumb, draw the flag/flags of the countries you feel you belong to
9. Make sure you have drawn and coloured your whole hand.
10. Cut out your hand drawing when it's finished.

This is my hand

Pair/group activity: Introduce yourself with the help of the drawing of your hand. Use the start sentences in the box if you need to.
