If you ask me	As far as I know

After Listening: Write!

In today's episode of Newsreel, we learnt that the UK has a period of grieving. This means that radio and television channels can only play sombre music and television shows. Some stores will be closed and the day of the funeral will be a national holiday with a two-minute silence.

Imagine you have a friend in the UK. Write to them to pay your respects, but also ask them about their lives during this period of grieving.

These questions can help you

- Greet your friend and ask how they are doing.
- Tell them you've heard about the death of the Queen.
- Ask them about the changes in their daily life, think about
  - o School and free time activities
  - o Family and conversations at home
  - o shopping and their social life.

After Listening: Find Out More!

Do some research and find out about Queen Elizabeth II.
