After Listening: Discuss!

In the first news story, we learnt about a skatepark in Scotland. Talk about skating and free time activities with a classmate.

Do you skate? Why or why not?

Do you think it is important to have free time activities or hobbies in your life? Why?

What do you like to do in your free time? Give examples!

What things are important to you in your free time?

Do you spend your free time with your family or friends? What things do you do together?

Discuss with a classmate!

These words and phrases may help you

I think (that)...

On the one hand, ...

In my opinion...

I believe (that)...

On the other hand, ...

I reckon...

If you ask me...

As far as I know...

I would say...

After Listening: Write!

In the second news story, we found about the potential ban of Wikipedia in the UK. We learnt that it is important to fact-check the information you read online. A blog site for young people has asked you to write a short blog post about fact-checking. Answer the prompts below to help you write your text.

Prompts to help you with your writing:

- First of all, introduce yourself.
- Why is fact-checking important online?
- Do you fact-check information you find online?
- Can you think of any examples where someone has not fact-checked something?
- Why is it a bad idea to believe everything you find online?
- Have you ever believed something that maybe wasn't true?

After Listening: Find Out More!
