

EPISODE 5 – THE BUMBLING BOSS GIRL

Before the episode

A. Work in pairs. Match words and explanations. Draw a line between them.

in charge	to give up when you are responsible for all the decisions
bossy	you give this to your boss when you want to quit your job
imperfect	dyslexia and dysgraphia are examples of these empowering	someone who wants to decide everything
feminist	when something makes you feel good about yourself
disorder	one of a kind
surrender	to separate two things from each other
unique	when you are responsible for all the decisions
resignation letter	believes in equal rights between women and men
distinguish	someone who isn't perfect

B. Practise the words with a friend.

- One of you reads the explanation and the other one guesses the word. Take turns!
- What do you think this episode will be about? Discuss with your friend.

Conversation starters:

- I think this episode will be about.....because.....
- I think Holly and her friends will.....

After watching

A. Put sentences in order.

- Write number 1-6 in the squares
- The sentence you think should come first should be number 1, the next sentence should be number 2.....

In the end, Heather is the one that comes up with the idea that they decide to stick with.

Amy on the other hand doesn't like his idea and questions Holly for not having her own opinion.

They suggest Holly should shoot a music video.

When Holly tells Oscar her idea, he doesn't like it and comes up with a new one.

At the start of the episode Holly plays her song for Piper and Amy and they loved it because it was so empowering.

Holly talks to her mum and decides to take charge of the situation, being the boss.

B. Adjectives

These adjectives are from the episode and can all describe what a person is like. Describe the characters in this episode by picking adjectives from the box and completing the sentences.

bossy rude mean manipulative imperfect incredible committed unique messy stupid ridiculous honest

1. Holly is committed to making a great music video because she wants more followers on social media.
2. Amy is _____ because _____
_____.
3. Oscar is _____ because _____
_____.
4. Robbie _____.
5. Mrs. Hobbie _____.

Write two sentences of your own and use adjectives to describe someone you know:

1. _____
_____
2. _____
_____

C. Can you think of other adjectives to describe people? Collect as many adjectives as you can in your class. Make a list together!

D. Feminism

Amy accuses Holly for only doing what Oscar says and that she expected Holly to be more like a feminist. She says “Susan B. Anthony would be rolling around in her grave”. Who is she? Find out more about feminism! What does it mean? What is the history behind it? Do a mini-research project and pick a famous feminist to write about and present. Here are some of the famous feminists you can write about:

- |                        |
|------------------------|
| Susan B Anthony        |
| Mary Wollstonecraft    |
| Elisabeth Cady Stanton |
| Emmeline Pankhurst     |
| Simone de Beauvoir     |
| Josephine Butler       |

Write down your keywords/facts here and then write your text by hand on a paper or on your computer using your own words.
