9. The 100 th wish on the bucket list is to go to outer space.
10. There are 50 more wishes added to the bucket list.

2. Discuss!

Work in pairs or small groups. Go through the questions below one at a time. Take turns starting to answer the questions. Be sure to let everyone in the group have a say.

1. How do you think Lorcan and Turlough felt when their mother passed away? How did this affect their relationship as brothers?
2. What are some things you noticed about Lorcan's character and his experiences in the film? How did the film show the importance of understanding and supporting family members with special needs?
3. Do you think it was difficult for Turlough to make the decision about leaving the farm? How did the brothers' different opinions create tension between them?
4. How did the movie show the importance of working together as a family, especially during tough times? Can you think of a time when you had to work together with your family or friends on something important?
5. What did you think about the relationship between the brothers and their journey to fulfill their mother's wishes? How did this journey change them as individuals?
6. Do you think it's acceptable for people, like Father O'Shea in the film, to make jokes about death and cremation, or do you believe there are some subjects that should be off-limits for humor? Why or why not? How can jokes impact different people, especially in sensitive situations?

3: Pronounce without shame!

Pronounce the words/phrases in the list below after first practicing together with your teacher. Work with a classmate and take turns pronouncing them with different emotional expressions. Create your own emotional expressions or choose from the list provided.

- Oi!
- Don't pour that on your roast potatoes.
- God, you're such an eejit.
- I won't be stuck here for the rest of my life mothering you.
- Waving her about like a banshee won't make much difference to her now, is it?
- If the woman wants to skydive, just let her skydive.
- Let the lad say his goodbyes to the place.
- Lorcan roped me into doing all that shite off Mum's list.

Upphovsrätten till innehållet i den här lärarhandledningen tillkommer UR, om inte något annat särskilt anges. Lärarhandledningen får fritt kopieras, distribueras digitalt och visas i undervisningssammanhang. När lärarhandledningen eller delar av innehållet används på olika sätt ska den ideella upphovsrätten iakttas. Det här betyder att du som lärare i din undervisning bland annat får kopiera upp så många kopior du behöver av hela eller delar av lärarhandledningen och dela ut till elever, tillhandahålla den digitalt till eleverna i en elevportal eller liknande, eller visa i en Powerpointpresentation. Viktigt att tänka på när du använder lärarhandledningen, på olika sätt, är att det alltid ska gå att se vem eller vilka som har upphovsrätten. Om lärarhandledningen kopieras upp i sin helhet så framgår det redan, men om det är så att du väljer att bara använda någon del behöver du skriva i anslutning till det du använder vem eller vilka det är (UR och/eller annat namn, som framgår i lärarhandledningen).
