After Listening: Discuss!

In the second news story, we learnt about young people's mental health in the UK. Discuss with a classmate:

- What does mental health mean to you? Can you think of times in your life when you felt like your mental health was suffering? What situations affected you? What did you do to feel better?
- Do you think it's important to talk about your feelings with friends, family, or adults? Why or why not?
- What would you say or do to a friend who is suffering with their mental health? How can you be a good friend and support them?
- Do you think mental health is made better or worse by social media? What can you do to deal with this problem?
- Do you think parents and teachers should do more to help young people's mental health get better? What ideas do you have?

These words and phrases may help you.

I think (that)	On the one hand, ...
I believe (that)	On the other hand, ...
I reckon	In my opinion
If you ask me	As far as I know

After Listening: Write!

In the first news story, we learnt about pupils in the UK being taught in temporary classrooms. A magazine for young people in the UK wants to know what young people in Sweden feel about school.

Here are some things you can write about

- "School is..." Finish the sentence! Describe what comes to mind first.
- What is your favourite subject in school? Why? What makes it enjoyable for you?
- Is there a subject you find challenging? How do you cope with those difficulties?
- Imagine you could design your ideal school day. What classes would you have? What activities would be included?
- Have you ever felt pressure at school, from yourself or others? How do you manage that pressure?
- What do you think schools could do to be more engaging or supportive for students?
- What skills or knowledge do you hope to gain from your school experience? How will they help you in the future?
- If you could give advice to someone starting at your school, what would you tell them?

After Listening: Find Out More!

In the final news story, we learnt about winners of the MOBO awards. Now it is up to you: Find out more about The Sugababes!

Here are some things you could find out about:

When and how did The Sugababes form?
Who were the original members of the band?

What awards have they won for their music?
What music genre do they typically perform?
