James: Hi, I'm James and I'm 12 years old.

Kwenzi: Hi, I'm Kwenzi and I'm also 12.

James: Our country is sunny all year round and we never get snow, like once in a blue moon.

Sounds: bike noise

Kwenzi: We normally ride together around the neighbourhood

Sounds: bike noise

James: .. Yeah, that was me and Kwenzi just riding our bikes. It's the cards that make a cool noise

Music: "Hi Congo" by Philip Tabane

Kwenzi: There are a lot of people and many different ways that people live in this country. Some are rich and they have clean houses and they are very furnished. And if you drive quite far away – you will see some people living on the side of the road, living in shacks.

Kwenzi: There are eleven official languages in our country and I learn two: Afrikaans and Zulu.

James: I also learn Afrikaans and Zulu, and in Afrikaans "good morning how are you is "goeie môre..."

Kwenzi: I wonder if you now know where we are?

Sounds: vuvuzela

That was a vuvuzela. It was used in the World cup this year. And it's basically a plastic trumpet.

James: I went to two World cup games. I went to Ghana Germany and Spain - Honduras. At the Ghana- Germany game I got to touch the ball which was quite lucky. And I kissed it so it was pretty awesome.
