

NEWSREEL EASY

2022-02-26

Programmanus

av Kate Holland

Hi, welcome to Newsreel Easy! I'm Kate Holland.

Coming up:

- What does it mean to 'come out'?

Carrie: To come out is to be proud of who you are and wanting to share that with the world.

But first:

Early Spring

The sound of spring is always welcome.

But scientists say flowers are blooming nearly a month early.

Snowdrops and daffodils are growing faster and earlier.

Frogspawn is also appearing earlier than usual.

Scientists think these changes are connected to climate change. Plants and animals might find these new changes difficult.

To help out animals and nature, leave fresh water and food in the winter, feed the birds and put litter in the bin.

LGBT+ Month

February is LGBT+ history month. The letters stand for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and others.

Gay relationships were illegal in England and Wales until 1967.

early spring

tidig vår

blooming

blommar

snowdrops

snödroppar

daffodils

påskliljor

frogspawn

groddägg

scientists

vetenskapsmän

climate change

klimatförändringar

litter

skräp

bin

här: soptunna

letters

bokstäver

relationships

förhållanden

50 years ago, the first Pride march in the UK took place. 2000 people gathered in London to march and celebrate being gay.

I spoke to Carrie, who came out as bisexual when they were 16. They identify as non-binary.

So, what does it mean to 'come out'?

Carrie: To come out is to not only be proud of who you are and wanting to share that with the world.

I still remember when I came out as bisexual and then later when I came out as non-binary. They're very special moments for me.

Have you been to Pride marches?

Carrie: I went to one when I was at university in York. That was really fun just seeing everyone in the community being happy. It was really infectious.

Carrie says the happiness at Pride was great to see. I also spoke to Daniel, who came out as gay when he was 14.

What does Pride mean to you?

Daniel: I think it's a really important opportunity to highlight the current issues in our country. But it's also about remembering and celebrating the achievements that we've made as a community.

So what will you be remembering this LGBT+ history month?

Daniel: I will be remembering some of the more interesting contributions LGBT people have made to the world.

I'll be remembering the fact that we have created music, films, and so many other things that have contributed to the culture of the Western world and beyond.

And finally:

The Brit Awards

TV presenter: And artist of the year goes to: Adele!

Adele: This is amazing! I actually really wasn't expecting this one at all.

Pride march

Prideparaden

they

här: hen

non-binary

icke-binära

come out

komma ut som homosexuell

be proud

vara stolt

community

gemenskap

infectious

smittsamt

happiness

glädjen

opportunity

tillfälle/ möjlighet

highlight

uppmärksamma

achievements

prestationer

contributions

bidrag

created

skapat

Western world

Västvärlden

Brit-awards

ett brittiskt musikpris

This is Adele winning Best Artist at the Brit Awards this month. The singer-songwriter also won Song of the Year and Album of the Year.

It was the first time the awards were gender neutral.

Adele: Go easy on me, baby

So, there were no male and female categories. All the awards were just for artists.

Speak to you all next time. Goodbye!

gender neutral

Könsneutral

go easy

Ta det lugnt